The Joe Bunting Mentorship Award was established to recognize the importance of mentorship to our community. To quote Joe from an article in ASPHALTopics, “You learn fairly early on in your career that your success depends on the success of others and I have always valued the opportunity to hire young people, to be their mentor and share in their achievements.” This award not only honours Joe but turns a spotlight on those people in our industry that take the time to teach, inspire and encourage tomorrow’s leaders of our industry.

Qualification of Nominees
Candidates must:
- Be a full member in good standing with OAPC.
- Or have retired from the HMA industry, but had been employed by an OAPC member company at one point in their career.

Documentation
Attach a typed detailed description highlighting the candidate’s volunteer work with OAPC. The Awards committee will be looking for nominations of an individual who has demonstrated a commitment to mentoring activities either within their workplace or in the Council.

Special Note
OAPC encourages member companies to distribute the Joe Bunting Mentorship Award nomination form to all staff.

The “Bleeds Black” Award

The purpose of the “Bleeds Black” Award is to highlight the passion and commitment of individuals to the superiority of asphalt as the pavement of choice in Ontario. The Council credits the words of Tim Fawcett, past OHMPA director, who said when describing an individual “whose passion and commitment for all things asphalt is so great that when cut, they bleed black.”—March 6, 2013 Annual General Meeting.

Qualification of Nominees

- Candidates must be actively involved in the asphalt industry in North America with direct benefit for the asphalt industry in Ontario.
- The candidate does not have to be a member of the Association.

Documentation

- Attach a typed detailed description highlighting the candidate’s passion and commitment to the superiority of asphalt as the pavement of choice in Ontario.

The Awards Committee is looking for the one person out of forty, who is not merely interested, but passionate about the Ontario Asphalt Pavement Council. That person who stands out above the rest.

“One person with passion is better than forty people merely interested.”
